Whether you dance for fun or desire to be a professional, it is important to adhere to the following policies. The world of dance has certain guidelines which apply to every dancer. The rules given to you are for your benefit. Everyone is here to learn and to have fun. By respecting these rules, you help set a pleasant learning atmosphere.

- o I am here by choice. I will come prepared, I will be punctual, and I will attend classes regularly because I realize excessive tardiness and absences can hold back my entire class as well as myself.
- o When I arrive 5 to 10 minutes before my scheduled class, I will use the washroom, take a drink, and put my shoes on because I realize this is a much better way to begin class than running in the door as class begins.
- o I will come to class with a positive attitude, I will be ready to learn, and I will be respectful of my teacher, classmates and studio property.
- o I will practice, listen, and learn from the corrections my instructor gives me.
- o I will not lean against the barres, the mirrors, or sit while class is in session.
- o I will keep my dance equipment neat and clean at all times.
- o I will not bring food or drinks into the dance rooms and I will not bring gum or candy into the dance studio.
- o I will not interrupt the instructor while another class is in session and I will not enter the dance room while another class is in session, unless I have permission to do so.
- o I will not run or yell in the studio.

- o I will remain in the building while waiting to be picked up after class.
- o I understand my dancer is to be picked up immediately after class ends.
- o I will not leave siblings unattended at the studio during class because it causes a disturbance and prevents proper instruction.
- o I understand there is to be no “Coaching from the sidelines” from any parents or observers to faculty members or students, including my own child during class.
- o I will check my e-mail at least once per week to keep updated on new information.
- o I will add a late fee of $10 for any payments received after the due date. If I do not add the late fee, I know I will be charged for the late fee automatically-NO EXCEPTIONS.
- o Lights, Camera, Dancin’ INC does not issue refunds-NO EXCEPTIONS.
- o I understand dance shoes are not to be worn outside for any reason.
- o We ask that you please notify the studio by phone or e-mail if your child will be absent. Classes that are missed may be made up in a similar class. Any class that is not made up, will be forfeited and refunds will not be issued. Classes that are cancelled by the studio will be rescheduled. If it is necessary for us to cancel classes due to severe weather conditions, we will send out an email during the day before classes would start and there will be a recorded message on the studio answering machine.
- o I understand if I do not adhere to these specified guidelines, my enrollment may be cancelled.
